

THE SUMMER

The out-of-town season is now practically at its height. The past week the trains have daily carried large crowds to the mountain resorts and news is brought back of a constant succession of entertainments with which the days and nights are made merry.

The stay-at-homes are having a good time, however, and the days are well filled. The principal affair of the past week was the reception and dance given at the Ladies' Literary club by the Misses Shearman and Mr. Harry Shearman. A large number of people were in attendance, and the affair was one of the prettiest of the season. Among other events of interest were the affairs at the homes of Mr. Carpenter, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Tuttle and Mrs. Charles Post.

Will Entertain Doctors' Wives.

This week the doctors' convention will be made an occasion for a good deal of festivity in the social world. Tomorrow being the society evening of the week, the Colorado ladies and all others who are in the city, will go to the lake, where they will be entertained by the wives of Salt Lake physicians. The committee appointed by the general organization to arrange a welcome for the visitors are: Mrs. I. B. Seattler, chairman; Mesdames Bower, Baldwin, Charles G. Plummer, A. C. Ewing, S. Ewing, A. J. Hosmer, Phlo E. Jones, Ira Lyons, William F. Beer, Charles P. Sough, M. A. Hughes, Gilbert R. Proulx, Theodore Meyer, A. C. Maclean, H. D. Niles and E. S. Wright. Mrs. Beatty will meet her committee at Saltair and everything will be done to make the stay of the ladies a pleasant one.

Children's Party.

On Wednesday afternoon Lorna Russell entertained a number of her little friends at the day and pony show. Those present were Martha Wells, Florence White, Katherine Jennings, Lydia White, Phyllis Dwyer, Dick Burton, Alice Pitts, Agnes Pitts, Harold Harding.

Conversations.

A conversation was given Tuesday evening by the Misses Hanauer, at which Mrs. Joseph R. Folsom and Mrs. Harry David Gue were the honored guests. The lawn was covered with Navaho blankets and Oriental rugs, and the hours were pleasantly passed out of doors. Punch was served during the evening and also delicious ices and cake.

Lawn Fete.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore was the scene of a brilliant lawn party Wednesday evening, given by Mr. Emmet Moore and Mrs. James Shaw.

The decorations were in the national colors, and the grounds were lighted with electric lights. Dancing to delightful music was the feature of the evening.

Mrs. E. R. Black, Mrs. Shaw and Miss Edythe Soars assisted in receiving during the evening, while the punch bowl was presided over by Miss Anna Hartman.

Present were the Misses Alma Andrews, Alice Beaman, Araminta Hooper, Edith Davies, Rena Petersen, Margaret Hiltner, Edith Crane, Nettie Hilton, Hattie Whitcomb, Rubelle Rathbone, Edna Jacobs, Florence Sears, Emma Miller, Luella Peterson, Minnie Miller, Ella Hoglan, Helen Boxrud, Roger Sherman, Emma Holberg, Bryan Riddle, Lorraine Leary, Elizabeth Standish, Marguerite Taylor, Edythe Soars, Messrs. Reception and Dance.

One of the week's most delightful events was the reception and dance given Wednesday evening at the Ladies' Literary club by the Misses Shearman and Mr. Harry Shearman. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Folsom of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Harry David Gue of New York, and was attended by over 100 guests.

The rooms were all beautifully and effectively decorated. Palms and cut flowers were used in the reception rooms. Sweet peas and carnations brightened the reception hall, while the dining room was in colors of pink and green. The hostesses were assisted during the evening by Mr. and Mrs. Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. Gue, Mrs. David Hempstead, Miss Woodward, the Misses Hanauer, Mrs. William Reid, Christensen's orchestra was in attendance throughout the evening.

Buffet Luncheon.

A delightful event of the week was the buffet luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. William Reid, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Folsom and Mr. and Mrs. Harry David Gue. The rooms were brightened with decorations of sweet peas and graceful vines, and the afternoon was a thoroughly informal and delightful one.
